HUSTONVILLE.

The Yosemite ball team played Hustonville here last week, resulting in a victory for Hustonville by the score of 9 to 7.

Our live stock dealers report business brisk and their purchases fully up to the average and no change in prices since last week's report.

Mrs. Mary Logan will arrive from the South this week to spend the summer with her daughters, Mrs. J. G. Weatherford and Misses Bettie and Mac Logan.

The subject of Rev. S. B. Lander's sermon next Sunday morning is: "Remember the dew of Old Night—The Great Home-Coming." All cordially invited to attend.

Already many former residents of our vicinity are arriving from their adopted homes in the South and West, all evidencing great delight and surprise at the steady growth and metropolitan appearance of our city.

Little Matilda Logan, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Logan, died last week of peritonitis. She spent last summer here with relatives and her lovely disposition won the admiration of all who met her and who mourn her untimely death.

Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin, the world's champion, of air ship fame, who is engaged this week in Louisville for daily trips over and around the city, will submit a proposition this week to make one or two days' exhibit encircling the city during the Hustonville fair.

Our ball team played the unbent Harrodsburg team last week on the latter's grounds, the score standing 2 to 1 in favor of Harrodsburg. The game was a pitched battle interspersed with brilliant plays by both teams and only three hits made. Our boys are anxious for another game.

Home Coming week has come at last and the fastest trains can't run too fast from North and South, East and West. The cars are packed with our guests. Who's star of hope is to be lucky enough to land them in Kentucky? Where o'er the blue grass we'll roam around our "Old Kentucky Home."

Miss Ann Ellis, of Stanford, is the guest of Mrs. John A. Blain. Mrs. Wm. Wheat and son, Vertrees, have gone to East Harrodsburg for a visit to her brother, P. H. Williams, and family. W. D. Hocker arrived home from Tyrone Saturday and returned Monday. He has been given a set of books to balance that will be all right when he gets through with them.

To the beautiful tenebrisal parlor of George N. Gillock has been added some new and elegant fixtures, another barber chair, cup cases, wall plate glass, perfume cases, etc. Also a large and well assorted line of imported and domestic perfumes. Hair growers, including the best quinine and other tonics, dandruff cures, bay rum, witch hazel, face creams, toilet powders, etc., etc.

Miss Lattie Eubanks, the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Eubanks, and Mr. Chester Carter, a prosperous farmer of Anderson county, were married last week by Rev. Moore, of Salvisa. So well did they keep their secret that even their intimate friends were greatly surprised on the receipt of their marriage announcement. They have the best wishes of the entire community.

The graded school bond issue failed by 11 votes on Saturday. While the voting manifested a considerable spirit both for and against the question, yet there was no real fight made on either side. Something over 100 votes were cast and had it not rained the vote would have been heavier. Many persons voting against the proposition have remarked that at the time of casting their ballots they were under the impression that the issue meant the creation of a debt of $4,000 to be liquidated at some future time by an extra assessment beyond the present tax rate of 31 cents on the $100. Such is not the case. The facts are as follows: The graded school established two years ago and in successful operation since the beginning, is without a permanent home, the trustees having rented Christian College for the past two years at a total cost to date of $600. It is believed and can be demonstrated that by a bond issue of $4,000 the trustees will be able, without calling for any extra assessment at any time, to pay for the property now being rented and to reduce the present tax rate to 23 cents at the expiration of 10 years, thus securing the property holders of the district a valuable school property without increase of tax rate and at the same time maintain the school at its present standard. Suppose the bonds are not issued? Let us see the results, viz: The property now occupied by the school has been bought by the trustees as individuals and not as a board, since the law prohibits the creation by a school board of a debt greater than their income from taxes will discharge within 12 months from date of contract. These facts being true, the owners of said building, whether they continue to be trustees of said district or not, may continue to rent the building to the school and it is entirely with them as individuals as to whether they make a deed of the property to the district at such time when the sum total of annual rentals paid by the district shall equal the purchase price and interest. On the other hand if the bonds are issued, every dollar set aside to create a sinking fund (and the board has at present about $500) instead of being expended as now, in rental, will be a guarantee to the property holders of the district that their money is being invested in a property always worth its cost. There is no hope of ever getting rid of a tax for a graded school in Hustonville. The people have spoken at a regular election two years ago and the majority wanted the school. Now the question of sound business policy is this: Issue bonds whereby the property can be owned at once by the whole people and the tax can be reduced in eight or 10 years; fail to issue bonds and continue until Gabriel blows his trumpet, to pay 30c on the $100 and own no property.

Mustered Out.

We are called upon to chronicle the death of Comrade George W. Gadbury, another gallant hero of the war that saved the flag and its principles.

He answered the last roll call May 21, 1896, at his home in Phil. Ky. Funeral services were conducted by Elder J. Q. Montgomery and his remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Middleburg, under the auspices of the G. A. R. Members of four different posts participated. Joab Rigney was appointed to act as commander.

Comrade Gadbury was a member of Co. A, 1st Ky. Cavalry, having enlisted July 27, 1861, and discharged Dec. 31, 1864. He married Miss Agnes P. Baldock April 16, 1866, and was an honorable and highly respected citizen, having lived a consistent member of the Baptist church for many years. He was a successful farmer and merchant at Phil. Casey county. Comrade Gadbury's health had been declining for two or three years, but he and his excellent wife traveled extensively last year in the Southwest, stopping quite a while in New Mexico, where he recuperated rapidly. He returned home to arrange his business affairs more properly and caught cold on the way. He gradually grew worse and was unable to return to New Mexico, as he had planned. The following resolutions of respect were adopted by James Humphrey Post No. 51, Department of Kentucky:

That we deeply and sincerely mourn the loss of Comrade George W. Gadbury, who was an enthusiastic member of G. A. R. Post at Phil. Ky.

That we deeply sympathize with his family in the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.

That a copy of these resolutions be given his wife and son, a copy spread on the minutes of this post and a copy be sent to the Casey County News, the INTERIOR JOURNAL and National Tribune.

Chaplain Joab Rigney, Jas. E. King, committee.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Eit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

BEWARE OF HIM.—An employee that quits one job and then roasts his former employer and tells all he knows about his business is a mighty poor sort of a man to have around. The tale-bearer is always an incompetent who seeks to cover up his incompetency by a ready flow of other office secrets. He is a dangerous man because his breeding and lack of common business decency makes him so.

Death From Lockjaw

never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. Oswald, merchant, of Rensselaersville, N. Y., writes: "It cured Seth Burch, of this place, of the ugliest sore on his neck I ever saw." Cures Cuts, Wounds, Burns and Sores. See at Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

John Eberlin, known as the "man of mystery," because he would never tell whence he came or anything about his family connections, was found dead in his room in St. Louis. He would talk only baseball and politics when not at work.

C. L. Young, a traveling salesman of patent rights, was found dying on the railroad tracks about six miles from Henderson. A bullet hole in the back of his head was the cause of death, and the circumstances indicate murder.

Fire destroyed nearly three blocks of houses in the business district of Hopkinsville. Four persons were hurt, one Negro probably fatally. The loss will be $100,000, only partly covered by insurance. Tons of tobacco were burned. It was given out Saturday that the boy had suffered a fracture of skull from a fall.

The State Department has been advised from Panama that the steamer Empire, flying the American flag, is reported to have sailed from Corinto, Nicaragua, for San Jose, Guatemala, carrying arms and ammunition for the revolutionists.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

Judge James Hargis, indicted in the Breathitt court for complicity in the murder of Dr. B. J. Cox, surrendered himself in open court, and later went to jail, where he is now confined. He filed a petition negating the unsanitary condition of the jail and asking to be transferred.

If you will make inquiry it will be a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder troubles in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints. G. L. Penny.

Dorth Campbell has bought the Middlesboro News from G. W. Albrecht and has taken full charge. The paper will be increased in size but the political complexion will be retained. The attorneys for Miss Sadie McGinnis, of Danville, will sue the Campbell-Hagerman College, Lexington, for $5,000 damages because that institution of learning refused to deliver to Miss McGinnis her diploma. Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, Stanford.

The Atlanta Journal says that Gov. Beckham must have given up hope of further political preferment when he decided that the saloons and other violators of the laws shall conform strictly to the letter of the law as it appears on the statute books. The Georgia paper could not have gone wider of the mark. No net of the many good ones that have distinguished the Governor's administration is more popular than the one which backs the local administration in the determination to "put the lid on" in Louisville and elsewhere on Sundays. A large majority of the people are law-abiding and law-loving, and will rally to the man who shows that he intends that the laws shall be obeyed.—Frankfort Journal.

An exchange calls attention to the fact that Kansas has had hard luck with her Senators. One committed suicide, one resigned years ago to escape expulsion, one was defeated for re-election by evidence that he was buying votes, and still another had his election investigated by a Senate committee, which reported that bribery in his interest was proved, but it was not clear that he was a party to the bribery or that enough votes were brought to affect the result. And now there is Burton. For a State that boasts of more churches and schools per capita than any other State, and a smaller percentage of foreign-born than most States have, Kansas has not established an enviable record in Senatorial selections.

WILLIAM PICKNEY WHYTE, who has just been appointed to succeed Senator Gorman, seems to be a child of fortune. This is the second time he has been appointed United States Senator, besides serving one term by election. He served a term as Governor of Maryland and as Mayor of Baltimore, facts that ought to distinguish him without spelling his name different from the rest of the White family.

President Roosevelt has submitted to the House Committee on Agriculture further results of the investigation of beef packing conditions. He spoke humorously of the haste shown by packers in making improvements after the inspection was under way.

In the House Mr. Brundage, of Arkansas, a member of the Appropriation Committee, bitterly arraigned President Roosevelt. Taking the items for the refurnishing of the White House, the care of grounds and the traveling expenses of the President as his text, Mr. Brundage contrasted the expenses of the last Cleveland Administration, the McKinley Administration and the Administration of Roosevelt.

J. G. Forrester, of Harlan, has announced for Congress in the Eleventh. Ex-Senator William F. Vilas, of Wisconsin, a steadfast Cleveland supporter, and ex-Senator James K. Jones, of Arkansas, have declared for W. J. Bryan for President.

Indiana Democrats in convention went wild at every mention of Bryan and pledged him their State's endorsement two years hence. A strong ticket was nominated with complete harmony prevailing.

Forty thousand visitors were in Boston Sunday to attend the dedication of a $2,000,000 Christian Science temple. Six services were held in order to accommodate the hosts.

The Methodist church at Cynthiana received about $160 in a rather unusual manner this week. Joe Lewis had sued Curtis McLane for $182.40. Both sides were determined to fight it out until the idea struck them that it might be a good idea to give the money to the Methodist church. A compromise was agreed upon whereby both parties consented that the defendant should turn over $160 to the Cynthiana Methodist church.

TESTIMONIAL!

This is to certify that the Country Hydrant Co. water plant inaugurated in my house last Fall by S. H. Aldridge, the tinner and plumber, of Stanford, has given good service. I would not be without one of the kind for several times its cost. My family enjoy this improvement as much or more than our indispensable phone. This system is in every particular an up-to-date plant. So simple and useful fresh water can be had in short order all through house from cistern at all hours. Ask Mr. Aldridge, the plumber, for a catalogue and read up on this wonderful time and labor saving way of living. You can pump up enough air in a few minutes to supply water for an ordinary size family all day. Think of it, both cold or hot water.

MRS. S. W. GIVENS entertained the little folks at her home in the Northwest part of Middlesboro Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock in honor of three visiting children, her nieces, the Misses Givens. A large number of the small kind of humanity attended. A delightful evening was experienced by the children, as "everything under the sun" was played until the "kids" were tired. Ices and cakes were served. The visitors at Mrs. Givens' are from Pittsburg and Hubble. They are nieces of Mr. Givens. -Middlesboro News.

"WETS" WON. - "The election passed off quietly" as we stated in our last issue that we hoped it would. Both sides worked like Turks, but if there was a jar or unkind word exchanged, we failed to hear of it. 310 votes were polled and the "wets" got a majority of 44. The vote was light, as the registration shows that there are 411 voters in Stanford. Song and prayer services were held at the court-house from early morning until after the polls closed at 4 o'clock. The music the good women made was beautiful and we hope they will be rewarded for their hard day's work. Whether or not they made votes for the "dry" side will perhaps never be known. Their intention was good, however, and truly can it be said of them that they did what they could. The temperance people say their defeat only whets their appetites and that they will hold another election under the Unit law as soon as possible. They claim that the election of Saturday will not hold good, but on that question there is a diversity of opinion. Under the Unit law, which goes into effect tomorrow, the vote will be taken in the entire county.

I STILL have on hand plenty of sweet potato, cabbage and celery plants. Cabbage heads now ready for sale. J. W. Brackett.

SPEAKING. - Fontaine Fox Robbitt will speak at Livingston Monday night, June 18, 1906. And also at Waynesburg before and after dinner July 4th. Everybody invited.

IN the county court yesterday the wills of J. W. Eubanks, W. C. Barnett and Harriett Carson were probated. They all divide their property among their children. Messrs. Milford, Geo. and Cicero Eubanks are named as executors of Mr. Eubanks' estate. This and some routine business was the extent of the work done.

HAYDEN DUNN, son of Col. Ike Dunn, of Garrard, took his life in his room at the Rand Hotel, Cincinnati, Sunday. Mr. M. S. Baughman, a relative by marriage, accompanied the father to Cincinnati yesterday to return with the remains. Young Dunn was about 25 years old and was in the employ of the Carpenter Stationery Co.

CIRCUIT COURT. - The June term of the Lincoln circuit court begun yesterday with Judge W. C. Bell on the bench and Hon. Charles A. Hardin representing the State's interests. Judge Bell delivered a comprehensive charge to the grand jury, putting particular stress on the violation of the Sunday laws, the illegal sale of whisky and carrying concealed weapons.
